

ANIME SACRAMENTO NEWSLETTER

MARCH - APRIL 1993.

Welcome to the April-May issue of the Anime Sacramento Newsletter. Meetings of Anime Sacramento are bi-monthly, on the odd-numbered months, at the house of Laurine White, 5422 Colusa Way, Sacramento, CA 95841, in the neighborhood behind the Lucky supermarket, northwest of the intersection of Auburn Blvd and Garfield. Phone the editor, Laurine White at (916) 332-7461, between 6-9pm (Pacific Time) for info and directions.

The next meeting is on Saturday, May 8, from 1pm to 11pm. DO NOT ARRIVE EARLY! Dinner break will be 7-8pm for Star Trek. Do not be obnoxious; this is a private house. No crosstaping; I'll be too busy before and during the show. Nora moved out, so I'm temporarily lacking chairs and cushions. If you bring your own to sit on during the meeting, it would help. The house should be properly furnished again before the July meeting. May meeting ends at 11pm - everyone will be thrown out then, except for those from the Bay Area who contact me in advance. Please bring munchies or drinks to share with others. Thank you everyone who brought munchies to the March show.

Subscriptions to this newsletter are available, 3 issues for $1.50, higher in Canada - $1.80. Yes, it's a price increase.

Tara Releasing also has the rights to release GIANT ROBO the movie and BAREFOOT GEN.

Troma Films has acquired the theatrical rights to TOTORO.

The first issue of the ZILLION comicbook is being published in April by Eternity Comics. The series is being written by Tom Mason, drawn by Harrison Fong. Mason has been writing ROBOTECH II: THE SENTINELS. Viz will be publishing PIXY JUNKET ("an emerging new star in the tradition of Appleseed"), story & art by Pure, monthly, 6 issues, 32 pages, b&w, $2.75. Viz starts publishing MAISON IKKOKU in June, story & art by Rumiko Takahashi, monthly, 7 issues, b&w, 40 pages, $2.95. The RANMA½ graphic novel, vol. 1, b&w, 304 pages, $16.95, will be published by Viz in May. Viz publishes GENOCYBER #1 (of 7) in April, story & art by Tony Takezaki, monthly, b&w, 32 pages, $2.75.

About May U.S. Manga Corps will be releasing on video: Photon Space Sailor Starlight ODIN, 139 (incredibly boring) minutes of space voyage for $40, and EXPLORER WOMAN RAY (think female Indiana Jones, I enjoyed it), 60 minutes for $35.

AnimEigo, PO Box 989, Wilmington, NC 28402-0989, Ph# (919) 251-1850, will be releasing some anime on laserdisc between June and October, including Orange Road OAVs 1-4, MADOX-01/Riding Bean (double feature), Urusei Yatsura Movie #1, and Orange Road The Movie. C.A. Animation Galleries, Inc., 77 Middle Neck Rd, Great Neck, NY 11021, ph# (800)541-2278, has cels from The Guyver and Kabuto for sale. Contact them for a catalog; your first one from them is free. After that, $12 for 5 catalog issues (one year).

Animaster Magazine (#2 is $6, includes postage) and Anime Master (LD and CD mail order - $3 by air mail for Feb 1993 catalog) are from The Goodwill Network, PO Box 3244, 1400 Yverdon, Switzerland. They have 1500 LDs, 1000 CDs, the catalog is 20 pages, and, with their magazine, hope to put international anime fans in contact with each other.

Note that Protoculture Addicts is an anime prozine, not a fanzine, not about Robotech any longer. If some of those other editor/publishers would get their act together, maybe we'd see Animag 5, and some issues of V-Max. I'm not holding my breath. If you see a zine called JAPANESEANIMATIONMOVEMENT on the stands, for $5, don't waste your money. It's out of New York, thinks it's a prozine.
